Greetings everyone!

It has been a busy few months since I last wrote to you. I have had the pleasure of going to multiple events across the country this year and have even more coming up. Please pray for me that the Lord will give me physical strength to attend all the events I have planned. I even was able to take my family along for the mission conference in Nipawin. Little David is now 8 1/2 months old and is already getting into everything he can reach. The Lord has truly been good, and I praise and glorify Him for His generosity.

As many of you probably know, my dad Neal had knee replacement surgery. The surgery itself was successful, but dad wasn't feeling well after. It turns out he has hyperthyroidism and it was damaging his kidneys and delaying his healing. He had additional surgery and is still recovering, but his kidneys haven't shown any improvement. Please keep him in your prayers as well. But in all things, we trust in the Lord for He is good.

Thank you for all your generous support to my ministry with NAIM. The matching grant for new support is still available. A note from Ron Hartwig, NAIM's Executive Director:

A foundation that loves NAIM wants to see all our staff at 100% support. The foundation is offering a matching grant for every donation from a new donor - as well as increased donations from current donors - up to $1000/month for twelve months. They will match ongoing new donations whether the donations are monthly, quarterly or spontaneous through August 2026. Please consider giving (or giving a little bit more), knowing that your donations will be doubled.

I am still involved with This Is My Story video project and if you would like to support that, there is a link on the NAIM website under Donate. I am continually humbled by the faithfulness of God and His people who support mission work.

Jesse
