Greetings and salutations everyone!

I hope that your spring has been a lovely one. I love the spring as new life springs forth and a new generation begins. I am in full swing of planning and signing up for the many events that are coming up this year. And like the spring, I pray that a new generation of missionaries spring forth to bring the Lord to those who so desperately need it. Please pray for me as I work towards that goal with others in NAIM.

As I am writing this, my lovely wife is sitting in a hospital bed holding our son. David Clarence Alsbach was born on May 16th at 10lbs 6oz and 21.3 inches long. Due to his size the Dr suggested an elective c-section and we agreed. It went well and both my wife and son are happy and healthy. I am looking forward to being a father and pray the Lord would be at work in my heart to point my child towards our all-important Lord in everything. All praise and glory belong to the Lord for he is good!

I am continuing to raise support as I have a short-term goal to reach 75% of my total needed support (I am currently at around 40%). I have some good news, there is a foundation wanting to match any new or greater than normal gifts, dollar for dollar, for 12 months, for all under-supported NAIM staff! That means that each new donation is doubled! Your $10 donation will give us $20, $50 will turn to $100... you get the point. This is an amazing opportunity for me to make up much needed support and for your support dollars to go twice as far. I am blown away by the current supporters I do have and thank God for your faithful giving.

One of the hardest things that we as missionaries must do it ask for finances. It's awkward and uncomfortable. A good friend of my parents once said, "Who are you to deprive someone of God's blessing for giving to His work?" Thank you all for your overwhelming generosity. May God truly bless you in return.
