Greetings everyone! I hope that this letter finds you all well. What a wonderful time of year it is, the snow is falling and covers the land in a sheet of white. It always reminds me of our own lives as we are sinful and dirty, but by the sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ, we can be made as white as snow. Stephanie and I pray every night for our son, that he will grow to be a wonderful man that follows the Lord with all his heart. He is 6 months old and is full of energy and joy and we love him so very much!

I have many events and churches that I plan on visiting this winter and am excited to see what God has in store for them. The matching grant is still in effect, and I am still raising support so if you hear of someone looking to support a missionary, please keep me in mind! Please join with me in prayer that the Lord would work powerfully in the lives of many people this year and fill the shoes of those who are taking their long-deserved rest in retirement.

I also have some exciting news I would like to share with you. I am fortunate enough to be on a committee of people in the mission that work on making videos. We interview First Nations believers and have them tell their powerful stories of how God has worked in their lives. We have a YouTube channel that you can find by typing “This is My Story NAIM.” The QR code in my newsletter will send you directly to our channel. If you would like to help with this project, there is a section of the donation

NAIM website dedicated to this project. May the Lord keep you all close and I pray you feel His great peace and love in your lives.

To support this ministry financially, cheques should be made out to NAIM with Project #210 in the memo line. Donations can also be made online at www.naim.ca/donate
