Dear Friends of Cliff and Cheryl,

Honestly, this is a difficult letter for me to write. ... Cliff and Cheryl have felt led by the Lord to step away from full-time service with NAIM. They are "retiring". I know they will continue to serve the Lord and do ministry no matter where they go – they just won't be full time NAIM staff.

This past September, at our staff conference, we honoured Cliff for 50 years of service with NAIM. Cheryl has been at his side for 20 years. Most of us have never known NAIM without Cliff being a part of it.

I will miss the Reynolds tremendously. Their commitment to serving at every level in NAIM has been exemplary: front-line relationships of evangelism and discipleship, teaching, mentoring younger staff, and providing supervision and member care for their fellow staff members are just a few examples.

I want to take this opportunity to thank you for being a part of their lives and for being a part of what God is doing through NAIM. Your prayers and faithful support have eternal significance in God's kingdom.

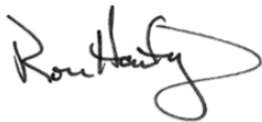

I know Cliff and Cheryl are hoping that some of you will continue to pray and support NAIM's ministries – especially on the Saskatchewan prairies. With the Reynolds' blessing, I invite you to redirect your donations to either Nikki Clarke or Jesse Alsbach.

NAIM will continue to receipt funds directed to the Reynolds ministry project account (8051) post-marked by December 31, 2024. Automatic donations will be stopped at that point unless we hear from you otherwise.

If you would like to give extra with your final donation, as a retirement gift, we certainly will be able to pass that along.

Thank you for your commitment to the Lord and His work. I hope that God will lead you to continue with us reaching First Nations and Native American peoples.

Sincerely,

Ron Hartwig

Executive Director
